Inspired Motivated Dedicated

Words from the Director of Operations

Dear Colleagues,

Welcome to the month of May and June 2017 issue of Al Diar Insider. I hope everyone is keeping well as the weather started to change.

In this issue, we spotted a team performing their daily tasks and as well some inspiring colleagues who have gone extra miles from the time they started their career. It is also great to know that some of our colleagues have initiated a sports and fun activity to strengthen the relationship with our loyal guests and corporate clients. Whilst, some maintain the confidence and trust from our corporate clients and has been an all-time-choice to host and cater a very important event.

There is a huge challenge in the market and each of us plays an important role in Al Diar Hotels to cope up with this challenge. Let us all hold our hands together in providing a responsible, friendly and warm welcome attitude with our guests.
